

Building Trust Just for Women!

Does gender and culture play a part in your personal trust associations?

Join us, Walks Beside Coaching, for a session to understand the issues that may affect building personal & professional relationships of trust.

Benefits to You:

- * Understand the invisible rules that women follow when building relationships
- * Discover the elements that may be destroying trust & respect between you and your colleagues
- * Identify the triggers in the conversation that propel you to anger or resentment?
- * Understand the difference between 'nurturing & instinctual' trust & how you know when they are in action
- * Learn to use the speech tools that build trust & collaboration
